- Low risk start-up costs: $500-$1000 typical business order.
- Home Office partnership: On Day One you get product development, legal groundwork, customer service, data processing, banking, sales & product training, marketing & branding and social media tools.
- Free business coaching: Your business partners have a vested interest in your success. They've made it work and they can show you how to make it work.
- Tax benefits: Take advantage of home-based business deductions.
- Earn while you learn: Commissions paid weekly beginning Month One.
- The magic of compounding working for you: Build your network of consumers and consultants and teach others to build theirs. Create lifetime monthly income from in-demand and consumable products. 3-5 years of consistent effort can pay off for years to come.

But how does it work? 🤔

ONE

MANY

Another way of explaining Network Marketing is -
A lot of people each doing a little bit.

1. You love the product and promote it in an authentic way.
2. You recruit others who love the product and promote it.
3. Everyone, from day one, can build a team of recruiters and product users.
4. Building a team creates potential for geometric growth: think 'family generations'.
5. You can earn commissions based on the success of all the generations on your team.
